The Youth Hostel at Parque das Nações was built in 1998 to host young people from all over the globe who came to visit Expo 98. With the renovation of the east side of town, a whole range of facilities were created, much to the satisfaction of Lisbon's inhabitants. Young people were absolutely thrilled with the new possibility of having huge concerts in Pavilhão Atlântico, visiting the theme pavillions and Lisbon's Oceanarium. Obviously, it had to have a Youth Hostel. Cultural shows at Pavilhão Atlântico, just 10 minutes by foot from the Youth Hostel.
